Jockey Suraj Narredu, the rider of STELLANTIS, drawn Nine, reported after the Race that, "just as the start was to be effected, his mount suddenly got restless and suddenly hit the front of the stall and as a result, my stall opened forcefully, a fraction of a second before the actual start being affected by the Starter" and as such, he thought that it was a false start. The Stewards viewed the Start of the race and perused the CCTV replays of all the available angles. They also examined the Starters, Mr. Kiran M and Mr. Shanmukha Swamy K S and recorded their statements. After due discussions and after detailed discussions, the Stewards concluded that due to STELLANTIS banging the front of its stall, its stall opened a fraction of a second earlier than the other Stalls, but this incident did not create an undue advantage to any rider in the above Race.
